

FOR THE PEOPLE OF SOUTHERN MADAGASCAR

URGENT APPEAL #2

This little girl has never heard of climate change! But it's changed her life.

She's focused on the relentless gnawing pains in her tummy and wonders why she doesn't get enough to eat – of anything!

As this climate change induced drought ravages on, the present needs remain just as urgent. Local agricultural output is still extremely low, food prices are high and now there is some local migration with people moving into areas where food distributions are happening with the hopes of receiving food for their families. This is totally understandable but not good. Displacement can lead to other serious problems.

Measuring limbs is a way of collecting malnutrition data. It is a simple but essential process for determining the best way to give immediate help and gather data to measure program impact assessment.

For now, the good news is that this little girl and hundreds of other children are now under relief supervision and should recover.

IF YOU ARE ABLE - PLEASE HELP

Tamaria and her children are forced to eat cactus to temporarily soothe hunger pangs

For all the families needing help your kindness and generosity buys...

An RUTF pouch containing Ready to Use Therapeutic Food which provides the essential nutrients necessary for a child's recovery from severe and moderate acute malnutrition.

A single pouch costs £0.29.

A basic meal costing £0.40 per person. To provide a family with two months food security costs £192.
